Vilmoiria

Villa Maria College

Erie, Pennsylvania

1968

Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for any fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing,
Learn to labor and to wait.
Longfellow

Let us move on to even better things,
Beyond the great, beyond the real.
Let us move on to special things,
Far reaching, ever upward,
and on unto eternity.
Let us move on . . .

As we complete this, our first presentation of the Vilmoiria, we would like to thank many people for their cooperation in helping us to make this yearbook a reality. Special thanks are due to those members of the Staff who willingly gave of their Saturday afternoons. To the faculty we say thanks for your understanding; to the parents and donors, thanks for your support. We also owe a special debt of gratitude to Mr. Swanson, the American Yearbook representative, for his hours of counseling, guidance, and encouragement.

Less than a year ago, this yearbook was only an aspiration in the minds of an interested few. Once the task was undertaken, however, this desire slowly became a reality. The goals set forth were to convey the spirit of Villa in all its varied aspects and present this spirit in new and imaginative ways. We feel this Yearbook represents the achievement of these goals.

It is the editor's hope that the spirit of Villa will continue to be an expression of the 1968 Vilmoiria themes—"Villa on the Move."

Co-Editors, 1968 Vilmoiria
